

80. Humor, Humility and Social Skills (3:53)

I've got to have a joke that goes for everybody. Let me see...I'm going to tell you one about the guy who was an actor but he couldn't remember his lines. And so he just couldn't get a job.

Well his friend decided you know I got a part for you. He said it's very short. All you have to do is say, "Hark, I hear the roar of the cannon." That's all you have to say. So he thought, "Well I can probably handle that." So it's, "Hark, I hear the roar of the cannon. Hark, I hear the roar of the cannon." That's all he had to say.

Well it came time to go on the stage and he was standing in the wings and he had been practicing "Hark I hear the roar of the cannon." So they said, "Now it is time to go up on the stage." And he entered the stage and there went out a big boom and he said, "What the heck was that?" [Laughter]

Now this next one is a blonde girlfriend. He took her to a football game. She'd never been to a professional football game before. Later he said, "Did you like the football game?" And she said, "Yes I did. I liked it a lot. But I was upset with the people. They just were almost killing each other for a quarter." He said, "What do you mean they were killing each other for a quarter?" She said, "All they kept yelling was GET THE QUARTERBACK!" You notice - I'm a happy guy!

I don't think there's any fuel in here. Nobody has a match in the room. Nobody has a match in the room. Can you hold it down when you... You know, I think the candle thing is overrated... Happy birthday to you , happy birthday to you, happy birthday... [Music]...dear Happy Birthday to you [Music] [Applause]

I'm cutting. I'm going for it.

Got the Flyers all right. Talk about pterodactyls! Okay big smiles. You got it. Don't let these guys anywhere near a plane. Fly away never again. All right - how many people are shooting pictures here? Okay you think we got it?

WHAT THE HECK WAS THAT? [Music] So you like that one, huh?
